

LIFOCUS

Law/Technology Ones to Watch

JACQUELINE D'AMBROSI FLOYD FEATHER

ADAM GOTTLIEB ADAM KOBLENZ

A. THOMAS LEVIN DIANA SANTARIELLO

Jacqueline D'Ambrosi

Vice President of Sales and Marketing
DJJ Technologies

Jacqueline D'Ambrosi works for DJJ Technologies, an Islandia-based telecommunications company where, as vice president of sales and marketing, she focuses on developing strategic business-to-business partnerships to aid in the delivery of complex, multifaceted systems. An 18-year veteran of the telecommunications, information technology and carrier systems industries, D'Ambrosi has spent the last 15 years with DJJ Technologies, where she works closely with clients from the design phase through delivery. D'Ambrosi maintains high-level manufacturer certifications in both design and implementation.

Floyd Feather

Manager, Design Engineering
Mass Communications

As a design engineering manager, Floyd Feather is responsible for the Long Island territory for Mass Communications, a Manhattan-based connectivity and telecommunications management provider where he has spent the last half of his 12-year career. Over the course of his career, he has worked on network designs for companies in a wide range of industries, including the financial, healthcare, media and e-commerce sectors. As part of his role, Feather trains and mentors staff members in the design engineering department.

Adam Gottlieb

Chair, Trusts and Estates, Tax, and Elder Law Department
Campolo, Middleton & McCormick

Ronkonkoma-based Campolo, Middleton & McCormick recently welcomed attorney Adam Gottlieb as chair of its trusts and estates, tax and elder law department. Gottlieb, who is also a certified public accountant, concentrates his practice on wills, trusts, estate planning, tax planning and generation-skipping transfer planning for high-net-worth families, as well as elder law planning. Gottlieb also advises fiduciaries in administering estates and trusts, including the preparation of estate and gift tax returns. Gottlieb's accounting background is also an asset to the law firm's corporate, mergers and acquisitions, and litigation groups.

Adam Koblenz

Partner
Sahn Ward Coschignano

Based in Uniondale, Adam Koblenz concentrates his practice in the areas of real estate and corporate law and litigation and appeals. The Sahn Ward Coschignano partner has represented major corporations, municipalities, unions, small businesses, nonprofits and individuals in complex commercial and corporate litigation matters. He also serves as a village prosecutor for the Village of East Hills and special prosecuting attorney for the villages of Old Westbury and Sands Point. From 2013 through 2015, Koblenz was named to the Metro New York Rising Stars list by industry publication Super Lawyers.

A. Thomas Levin

Member
Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein

A member of Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein in Garden City, A. Thomas Levin chairs the law firm's local government, land use and environmental compliance practice as well as its professional responsibility practice. He also started and chairs the firm's Veterans' Scholarship Program at Nassau Community College. At the start of this year, Levin was reelected vice chair of the international section of the New York State Bar Association. He is also a member of the executive committee of the state bar's local and state government law section.

Diana Santariello

Sales and Marketing Executive
Network Solutions and Technology

As a senior sales executive with Network Solutions and Technology, Diana Santariello actively seeks new opportunities to serve small to mid-sized businesses. She is also responsible for all marketing efforts for the full-service IT consulting company, which has offices in East Northport and Manhattan. Recently she redesigned the company's website, updating the layout, content and features to make them more user-friendly. Since joining Network Solutions and Technology in 2013, Santariello has planned all company events, including client- and employee-appreciation events and leadership retreats for management staff.