Twomey Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo LLP has announced that three of the firm's associates — Craig H. Handler, Karen A. Hoeg and Bernadette E. Tuthill — have been elevated to partner.

“It is our pleasure to promote Mr. Handler, Ms. Hoeg and Ms. Tuthill to the level of Partner,” said Stephen B. Latham, senior partner, Twomey Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo, LLP. “They have excelled in their respective practice areas and their new positions within the firm recognize their dedication and hard work.”

Handler concentrates his practice in construction, business and corporate law, civil litigation, insurance, technology and real estate. He has also been recognized as one of the few attorneys in New York State with knowledge of new legislation regarding the use of unmanned aerial vehicles for commercial and non-hobbyist applications. He serves as a judge advocate assigned to the 7th Legal Support Detachment, 88th Brigade, New York Army Guard and presently holds the rank of captain. He is a graduate of the State University of New York at Binghamton and Hofstra University School of Law.

Karen Hoeg

Hoeg concentrates her practice in civil litigation, land use and zoning and real estate. While attending New York Law School, she worked as a law clerk for Webster & Sheffield and Mudge, Rose, Guthrie & Alexander and later joined the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, where she worked as a law clerk and then as an attorney in the commercial litigation and New York Litigation Divisions. She handled all aspects of bankruptcy, commercial landlord/tenant, personal injury and property damage cases from inception to trial, including cases relating to the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Center. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the State University of New York at Stony Brook and a Juris Doctor from New York Law School.

Bernadette Tuthill

Tuthill concentrates her practice in wills, trusts and estates, elder law, taxation of trusts and estates, and business and corporate law. Her estate administration and estate tax experience include estates in excess of $30 million which have included closely held businesses, in- and out-of-state real estate holdings, life insurance, securities and retirement holdings and trusts. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Ithaca College and a Juris Doctor (summa cum laude) from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center.
