CALENDAR

The East End's largest law firm continues to expand and bolster its real estate division. East Hampton-based Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo LLP announced this week three associates have been elevated to partner.

Craig Handler concentrates his practice in construction, business and corporate law, civil litigation, insurance, and technology, as well as real estate. Karen Hoeg focuses her practice in real estate, land use and zoning, and environmental law. Bernadette Tuthill concentrates her practice in wills, trusts and estates, elder law, and taxation of trusts.

Tuthill's estate administration and tax experience include those in excess of $30 million, which have included closely-held businesses, in and out-of-state holdings, life insurance, securities and retirement holdings, and trusts. Her estate planning experience includes handling plans with multi-tiered entities, real estate holdings, securities, and multiple trusts with gifting in excess of $20 million.

Handler is admitted to practice in New York and before the U.S. District Court for the Eastern, Southern, and Northern districts; U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces; and Navy-Marine Corps Court of Criminal Appeals.
